Debtor)
_____)

Comes now debtor and for her response to Movant's Motion To Lift The Automatic Bankruptcy Stay and enters the following.

The property in question, and the subject of the motion, is the residence of debtor.

The motion should be denied.

Specifically, answering the motion through the bottom of the second page, debtor admits the allegations save and except at to the alleged default date.

Debtor denies the allegations on the third page.

Further, debtor is attempting a mortgage (deed of trust) modification, and will need time to complete that process. If the mortgage and note are modified, or some other forbearance is arranged, there will be no harm to the movant, and equity demands that the motion be stayed and continued until that time.

Wherefore, debtor prays that the motion be denied.

DATED this 3rd day of Dec. 2009.
